THROUGH,
THE CHIEF PRINCIPAL,
NAKURU HIGH SCHOOL,

Dear Sir/ Madam,

RE: THE ULTIMATE ANNUAL WORKSHOP FOR TEACHERS OF ENGLISH ON SATURDAY, 1ST FEBRUARY, 2025.

Nakuru High School Languages Department in collaboration with the East African Educational Publishers (E.A.E.P) would like to invite all teachers of English to a one-day workshop scheduled for Saturday, 1ST February 2025 at the school's Multi- Purpose Hall from 8.30 a.m. to 3.30 p.m.

The exercise endeavors to tap into the expertise of senior seasoned K.N.E.C examiners of English who will give insights into teaching and examining of English; Functional Skills, Literary Appreciation, Creative Writing, Essay Writing and New Trends in K.C.S.E English.

The facilitators will also share with the participants a thorough analysis of the new set texts: The Samaritan by John Lara, Fathers of Nations by Paul B. Vitta, A Silent Song and other Stories edited by Godwin Siundu, An Artist of the Floating World by Kazuo Ishiguro and Parliament of Owls by Adipo Sidang.

Different approaches to shaping the learners positively to the teaching and learning of English will be discussed in depth. The following Senior and seasoned examiners will handle the three areas:

1. Oloo Oliver – 101/3
2. Mr. Tom Otieno -101 /2
3. Ms. Anne Kariuki – 101/1
4. Nakuru High School English Department

Each participant shall pay a fee of Kshs. 2000 only. Comprehensive revision books by renowned authors will be available at affordable prices.

Kindly confirm your participation two days prior to the event for the purpose of planning through: 0724-644-671 or 0728-596-680.

Yours faithfully,

Anne Ndungu.
